

Bat Identification and an Introduction to Handling

Summary	This course is for people training towards a bat survey or Research licence Level 2. It will involve a classroom session covering bat identification and handling followed by a practical session.
Level	Intermediate level
Who is it for?	People wish to learn how to confidently identify bats and gain an understanding of safe and confident handling.
Trainer	Claire Andrews BSc (hons) MCIEEM
Topics Covered	Taxonomy Species identification in the hand and at rest Production of an Identification key Determining age, sex and reproductive status Handling demonstration and practice*
Details	The morning will be spent in the classroom with the afternoon being a practical session to practice and consolidate skills.
Cost	£120
Location and Timing	Rotherwick (5 min from Junction 5 of M3) 10 th May 2018 0930 – 1600
Booking	E-mail claire@caecology.co.uk or call 07933941470

*N.B. practice will not necessarily involve live bats.