

Introduction to Bats – Knowledge of Bats

Summary	This course is for people wanting to start training towards a bat licence and/or gain knowledge and skills necessary to independently and competently undertake professional surveys involving bats.
Level	Foundation level
Who is it for?	Consultants and those who undertake, review or assess bat surveys.
Trainer	Claire Andrews BSc (hons) MCIEEM
Topics Covered	Evolutionary history, diversity and ecological values Taxonomy and Identification Basic Biology and Physiology including Adaptations for flight, hibernation, echolocation, social behaviour, life cycles, mating and roosting strategies, breeding, development, feeding, and roosting ecology Legal and planning policy issues
Details	This is a classroom based course which aims to provide foundation knowledge and is an excellent pre-requisite to surveying for bats.
Cost	£100. If booked in conjunction with surveying for bats, the cost for both days will be £175. Prices exclude VAT.
Location and Timing	Rotherwick (5 min from Junction 5 of M3) 8 th May 2018 0930 -17.30
Booking	E-mail claire@caecology.co.uk or call 07933941470 or see booking form attached