

Surveying for Bats – Assessing Habitats and Buildings

Summary	This course is for people wanting to start training towards a bat licence and/or gain knowledge and skills necessary knowledge to independently and competently undertake professional surveys involving bats.
Level	Foundation level
Who is it for?	Consultants and those who undertake, review or assess bat surveys.
Trainer	Claire Andrews BSc (hons) MCIEEM
Topics Covered	Assessing habitat Health and Safety Survey planning How to conduct a survey What to look for What to record Building terminology	Typical and not so typical roosts Assigning a level of potential Case studies and Practical Session
Details	The morning will be spent in the classroom with the afternoon being a practical session to practice and consolidate skills. The introduction to bats day is and an excellent pre-requisite to this course.
Cost	£100. If booked in conjunction with introduction to bats the cost for both days will be £175 Prices exclude VAT.
Location and Timing	Rotherwick (5 min from Junction 5 of M3) 9 th May 2018 0930 – 1700
Booking	E-mail claire@caecology.co.uk or call 07933941470 or see booking form attached

