

Survey and Site assessment for Great Crested Newts

Summary	This course is for people wanting to learn how to conduct a habitat suitability assessment and survey for great crested newts
Level	Foundation level
Who is it for?	The course will be useful for people who wish to carry out surveys and are interested in obtaining a great crested newt licence.
Trainer	Claire Andrews BSc (hons) MCIEEM
Topics Covered	Biology and Ecology Habitat requirements Habitat Suitability Index Assessment (HSI) Identification Biosecurity measures Survey techniques including E-DNA Practical sessions in evening and mornings
Details	This course is split over two days starting late afternoon with a short classroom session then into the field for a practical session setting traps a break then a final evening session. The next morning we will meet early to retrieve traps.
Cost	£90 plus VAT
Location and Timing	Rotherwick (5 min from Junction 5 of M3) 29 th /30 th March 2018 First session 1430 – 2000 second session 0630 – between 0830 and 1000
Booking	E-mail claire@caecology.co.uk or call 07933941470 or see booking form attached